

1

It's free. Providers aren't charged any fees for the service.

2

It's customized. Your recruiter will only send you jobs that will be a good fit for you.

3

We have relationships with hospitals and private practices across the country and often know about jobs before they're advertised.

4

You'll receive coaching to help you highlight your strengths during the interview process.

5

We can assist you with contract negotiation, including your pay, benefits, and incentives.

6

You have access to a team that will help you with licensing and credentialing processes after you are hired.

7

Our recruiters are specialists; they understand your specialty and its nuances.

8

We have national insights into facilities and market trends, and we share this knowledge with you.

9

Our recruiters are partners in your search. They save you time by only presenting the best options.

10

We're an industry leader in healthcare staffing, and our only goal is finding the right job for you.

10 reasons to use CompHealth to find a permanent healthcare job.

CompHealth can help you find the perfect healthcare job.

Find out more at comphealth.com/jobs.